The U.S. aimed to promote democracy and free markets, while the USSR sought to establish a communist sphere of influence. These contrasting goals and policies created mistrust, which was exacerbated by events such as the Berlin Blockade, the formation of opposing military alliances, and disagreements over governance in Europe.

Question 2: How did the Cold War begin to shape international relations?

The Cold War influenced international relations by leading to the formation of military alliances like NATO and the Warsaw Pact, initiating an arms race, and fostering proxy wars in various regions.
