Biographical Background

Baba Vanga, born Vangelija Pandeva Dimitrova in 1911 in Strumica (modern-day North Macedonia), was a Bulgarian mystic and clairvoyant. Her early life was marked by tragedy and hardship—she lost her eyesight at the age of 12 due to a tornado, an event often considered a turning point that led her to develop her spiritual abilities. Despite her blindness, she is said to have possessed extraordinary insight into future events, which earned her both admiration and skepticism. Her reputation grew in Bulgaria and the surrounding Balkan regions, where locals would seek her counsel for health issues, personal dilemmas, and predictions about political and global affairs. Baba Vanga's life was characterized by humility, devoutness, and a steadfast belief in her spiritual gifts, which she claimed were bestowed upon her through divine inspiration.

The Nature of Her Abilities

Baba Vanga described her visions as a result of divine communication, often claiming that her predictions came through dreams or intuitive insights. Her followers believe she had a psychic sense that extended beyond the physical realm, enabling her to perceive events before they unfolded. While skeptics attribute her insights to coincidence, cold reading, or psychological intuition, her devotees argue that her accuracy, especially in certain major events, points to genuine psychic abilities. Her predictions often covered a wide array of topics, including natural disasters, political upheavals, technological followers to connect her forecasts to real-world events after they occur.

Many of Baba Vanga's followers admit that some predictions are only recognized as accurate after the events have transpired, a phenomenon known as postdiction. Confirmation bias—favoring information that confirms existing beliefs—may also play a role in elevating her status.
