Consumers become aware of a need or want, often triggered by internal cues (hunger, boredom) or external stimuli (advertising, social influence). -

Information Search: Gathering data from internal sources (memory, experiences) and external sources (advertisements, reviews). - Evaluation of Alternatives:

Comparing options based on attributes like price, quality, brand reputation. - Purchase Decision: Making the final choice, influenced by attitudes, perceptions, and situational factors. - Post-Purchase Behavior:

Satisfaction or dissatisfaction, which influences future decisions and word-of-mouth. 2. Psychological

Influences Schiffman delves deeply into internal factors shaping decisions: - Motivation: The driving force behind behavior, rooted in needs hierarchies like

Maslow's. - Perception: How consumers interpret information, including selective exposure, attention, and comprehension. - Learning: Changes in behavior resulting from experience, including classical conditioning, operant conditioning, and observational learning. - Attitudes and Persuasion: How beliefs and feelings toward a brand influence choices, with strategies like cognitive dissonance reduction. 3.

Social and Cultural Factors The book underscores that consumer behavior cannot be fully understood without considering social context:
