Over time, various factions splintered off, creating subsets with distinct identities and territories. The Insane Crips in Long Beach trace their roots to these broader Crip origins, adopting the moniker "Insane" to project an image of fearlessness and unpredictability. They established their foothold in Long Beach, a city with a burgeoning gang scene, particularly in neighborhoods like North Long Beach, Bixby Knolls, and the signal Hill area. Their formation was spurred by territorial disputes, competition with rival gangs such as the Bloods and other Crip factions, and the desire for dominance in local drug markets.
