Some adjectives have irregular comparative and superlative forms that do not follow standard rules: - good → better → best - bad → worse → worst - far → farther / further → farthest / furthest - little → less → least - many/much → more → most

Using than in Comparatives

In most cases, comparatives are followed by than to specify what is being compared: - "This book is more interesting than that one." - "He runs faster than I do."

Using the in Superlatives

Superlatives are often used with the to indicate the top or bottom among a group: - "This is the tallest building in the city." - "She is the most talented singer in the competition."

Common Mistakes and How to Avoid Them
