Originally conceived as a short story in 1953, the narrative was expanded into a full-length play that debuted on Broadway in 1959. The play was inspired by real-life events and Williams' own introspections on human vulnerability, societal repression, and the darker corners of the mind. Williams drew inspiration from a mixture of personal experiences, societal observations, and the scandalous nature of the Southern United States' social fabric. The play centers on the character of Catharine Holly, a young woman who witnesses her cousin Sebastian's gruesome death during a summer in Summerfield, Louisiana. The
