It differs from a traditional script by integrating lyrics seamlessly with dialogue, providing a cohesive script for the performers and creative team. In the context of Come From Away, the libretto serves as a vital vessel, blending spoken lines and musical numbers to depict a real-world event with emotional nuance and authenticity. It channels the voices of numerous characters—passengers, crew, townspeople, and first responders—each with their own stories and perspectives.

The libretto functions as the emotional and narrative compass of the production. It:

- Provides clarity: Organizes the chronological sequence of events, ensuring the audience follows the complex web of stories.
- Creates intimacy: Offers insight into characters' inner thoughts and feelings through dialogue and lyrics.
- Builds themes: Reinforces core messages such as compassion, community, and resilience.
- Facilitates pacing: Balances musical numbers with dialogue to maintain engagement and emotional impact.

The Origins and Development of the Come From Away Libretto

Conception and Inspiration

The libretto was crafted by Tony Award-winning writers Irene Sankoff and David Hein, who embarked on an extensive research journey to accurately portray the events surrounding 9/11 in Gander. - Interviews with residents of Gander and the passengers involved.
- Studying news reports and personal accounts.
- Attending community gatherings and listening to firsthand stories.

The result was a richly textured libretto that balances individual stories with overarching themes, ensuring authenticity and emotional resonance.

Challenges included: - Handling sensitive subject matter: Addressing tragedy while celebrating kindness. - Representing diverse characters: Ensuring each voice was heard and authentic. - Maintaining narrative coherence: Interweaving multiple storylines without confusion.
