Her early years were marked by hardship, including the loss of her mother at age nine and a childhood marked by illness and emotional trauma. Her father, Robert White, was a devout man who instilled in her a strong religious foundation rooted in Methodism. The Methodist Influence and Spiritual Awakening Growing up, Ellen was deeply influenced by Methodist teachings. Her early spiritual experiences included attending church services, participating in prayer meetings, and developing a personal faith. During her

In this vision, White claimed to see a divine review of the world's spiritual condition, which reinforced her conviction that her visions were divine in origin. The Nature of Her Visions White reported experiencing hundreds of visions and dreams over her lifetime, which she described as a means of divine communication.
